Team is set for victory

The 1982 Varsity Lady Knight Basketball Team

Things are looking up for the Buckingham High School varsity girls' basketball program.

Shirley McDaniel, in her second year at the helm of the Lady Knights' varsity ship, has a wealth of talent in a group of young players up this year from 1981's junior varsity squad at Buckingham.

"We're looking for a lot of help from the younger players," McDaniel notes. "We have some very strong players this year."

Veronica Carter and Margaret Bartee, both guards, and Evonne Allen, a center, are returning to play for the Lady Knights from last year's squad, which posted a 1-17 record.

Members of last year's junior varsity squad who will be playing varsity this year are Alice Apperson (center), Johnice Brown (forward), Vanessa Garrett (forward),Denise Ozmar (guard), Jennifer Gooden (guard), and Kim Fulcher (guard).

Senior Janine Miller, a "very quick guard" playing basketball for the first time this year, will also be an asset to the Lady Knight's Seminole District efforts, according to McDaniel.

The reason for McDaniel's enthusiasm about the group of young players from last year's jayvee team is simple: the Buckingham junior varsity squad posted a 13-4 record against tough Seminole District competition in 1981.

Last year was Buckingham's first in the Seminole District, and lack of depth on the team, combined with injuries, resulted in the Lady Knight's disappointing record.

"The girls worked hard last year, and they never stopped trying," McDaniel notes. "They were so hungry by the time they won, that that one victory (against

Nimrods set for '82 hunting season

WILD TURKEYS come into season in Appomattox and surrounding counties on Nov. 1, and remain fair game until Dec. 31. (Photo by Bill Sherrod)

Area hunters will get to unlimber their shooting irons Saturday with the noon opening of mourning dove season.

Virginia will again this year have a split season on doves, with the early part of the season running from Sept. 4 through Oct. 30, and the second half of the season running from Dec. 20 to Jan. 1.

Shooting hours are from noon until sunset in the Sept. 4 to Oct. 30 half of the season, and from one half hour before sunrise to sunset during the second phase of the season.

The limit on doves this year is 12 per day, 24 in possession.

Wild turkeys come into season in Appomattox and surrounding counties on Nov. 1, and will be fair game until Dec. 31.

The limit on turkeys this year is one per day, two per license year, one of which may be a hen in the fall season.

Squirrels will become fair game in Appomattox, Charlotte, Buckingham and Prince Edward Counties on Nov. 1, also, and remain in season until Jan. 31. In Amherst County, there will be an early season on squirrels, as well, running from Oct. 1 to Oct. 14. An even longer early season will be offered in Bedford and Campbell Counties, starting Sept. 15 and running through Oct. 14. In these counties with early seasons, squirrels will come back into season Nov. 1 and be fair game through Jan. 31. The limit on squirrels is six per day, 75 per license year.

Rabbit and quail will be fair game from Nov. 22 through Feb. 28 east of the Blue Ridge Mountains, and from Nov. 1 through Jan. 31 west of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

The limit on rabbits is six per day, 75 per license year, and the limit on quail is eight per day, 125 per license year.

Deer season begins Nov. 15 in Appomattox, Buckingham, Charlotte, and Prince Edward Counties, and runs through Jan. 5. In these counties, hunters may take two per year, including either sex on the last six hunting days only.

In Amherst County (east of Rt. 29) and Campbell County (east of the Southern Railroad), deer are in season from Nov. 15 through Jan. 5, with a bag limit of two per year, either sex on the last three hunting days.

In the western portions of Amherst and Campbell Counties, and in the county of Bedford, deer are in season Nov. 15-27, with hunters allowed to take one per day, two per license year, either sex on the last three hunting days.

In Nelson County, east of Rt. 151, the deer season and bag limits are the same as in Appomattox County. West of Rt. 151, the season and bag limit is Nov. 15-Jan. 5, either sex the last three hunting days.

Sportsmen are reminded that a state hunting license is required to hunt game, and a big game stamp is needed to hunt deer, bear and turkey.

Licenses and full details on hunting rules and seasons are available at the County Clerk's office and at many businesses which offer hunting supplies.
